If you change the time date location of the marriage and the Celebrant before the marriage you must inform us immediately and there may be an additional charge to amend the notice.

When processing your personal data, these offices are compliant with the Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law, 2017. For more information about how these offices process your personal data, please see the Fair Processing Notice available at the Royal Court Public Counter or on the Royal Court Website.

Note 1

If any of the documents that are required are not in English then we will also need an official translation to accompany them. You can ask this to be done by any reputable translation company or if it is being done by an individual they must have recognised qualifications and we also need confirmation of these qualifications. You cannot provide the translation yourself or ask a friend or relative unless they have the necessary qualifications.

Note 2

Immigration

If you are the holder of a British or Irish passport please put British or Irish.

If you are not a British or Irish Passport holder but are currently legally resident in UK or Bailiwick of Guernsey or other Crown Dependencies, please attach a copy of your visa or proof of your lawful residence.

If you are not a British or Irish passport holder and travelling to Guernsey to marry a person that is ordinarily a Guernsey resident and you intend to remain living in Bailiwick of Guernsey after your marriage you will require a spousal or fiancé visa.

If you are not a British or Irish Passport holder and are travelling to Bailiwick of Guernsey on holiday to get married and will not be remaining resident in the Bailiwick of Guernsey or in the UK then you can marry under the provisions of visitor visa or entry clearance permission granted by Border Authorities.

Note 3

Please note that if you were divorced outside the British Isles you will need to submit a written opinion from a Guernsey Advocate that the divorce would be legally recognised in The Bailiwick of Guernsey.

Note 4

Religious Ceremony

If you want a religious ceremony other than a Church of England service you will need to discuss arrangements with the religious organisation and make sure that the person who you would like to conduct the ceremony is an Authorised Religious Official.

Do not apply to give notice of marriage until you have set the time date and location with the authorised religious official.

The religious organisation will have their own fees and pricing structure and you will pay these fees directly to them for the services they will be providing directly.

Civil Celebrant Ceremony

Do not apply to give notice of marriage until you have set the time date and location with either a Deputy Registrar or an Authorised Civil Celebrant.

Civil celebrants will have their own fee structure for the services that they provide.

Note 5.

GENERAL RESTRICTIONS ON MARRIAGE
